

Benjamin Herrmann

After receiving a diploma in Information Management in 2006, Benjamin started within the consulting division of SAP Germany working there for three years in the area of Enterprise Architecture.

In June 2009 he took over the responsibility of UA Manager Germany serving the educational landscape with more than 250 institutions.

Currently he acts as a cluster manager for Austria, Switzerland and France to coordinate and steer the future development of SAP's academic initiative.