

Anna Maria Darmanin

Anna Maria Darmanin is a member of the European Economic and Social Committee representing Malta since 2004. Currently she is Vice President of the Worker's Group and also the Vice President of the INT Section (Internal Market, Consumption and Production).

Anna Maria is active in the areas of Sustainability, ICT, SMEs, Internal Market, consumer affairs and research. She has been the rapporteur for a number of EESC Opinions some of which in the field of ICT.

Anna Maria is a Training and Development expert in Malta and has also been a partner in various EU funded projects related to People Development and ICT. She is also a visiting lecturer to the University of Malta

Anna Maria is a graduate in Communication Studies and also obtained her Master of Arts in Human Resource Development.