

António Bob Santos

António Bob Santos, 33, holds a degree in Economics (specialization in Economics of Innovation) and a Master Degree in Sciences of Work, from the Instituto Superior de Ciências do Trabalho e da Empresa – ISCTE. António has always worked on the Innovation area, since 2001: PROINOV programme - Integrated Programme for Innovation; UMIC - Agency for Knowledge Society (2002-2005); Advisor to the Cabinet of the National Coordinator of the Lisbon Strategy and the Technological Plan (2005-2009); currently Deputy to the Secretary of State for Energy and Innovation.

Co-author of “Para uma Política de Inovação em Portugal” (Coord. M.J. Rodrigues, Publ. Dom Quixote, 2003) and “Treading the Path to the Knowledge Society – Patterns of ICT Diffusion in Portugal” (UMIC, Presidency of the Council of Ministers, 2003). He has authored several articles about Innovation, Knowledge Society and Qualifications.